

Two airline mechanics were working on a 747 when lunchtime came. Rather than leave what they were doing, they just took their lunch break while sitting in the cockpit. While they were eating lunch, one mechanic bet the other that the landing gear would not retract if he pulled the gear lever up.

He lost the bet.

Tower: "Delta 351, you have traffic at 10 o'clock, 6 miles!"

Delta 351: "Give us another hint! We have digital watches!"

During a particularly rough flight, the airline pilot addresses his passengers: "The turbulence we passed through was rough, but we have passed that now. The rest of the flight is expected to be smooth." The pilot was unaware that his PA switch was stuck in the on position. He leaned over to the co-pilot and said "Boy, was that rough! What I need now is a hot woman and a cold beer."

A flight attendant in the rear of the aircraft heard this, and ran forward to warn the pilot. As she neared the cockpit, an elderly female passenger stopped her saying "Don't forget the beer!"

A pilot hammered his plane into the runway really hard during a landing. The airline had a policy, which required the pilot to stand at the door while the passengers exited thanking them for flying XYZ airlines. He said that in light of the bad landing, he had a hard time looking the passengers in the eye, thinking that someone would have a smart comment. Finally everyone had gotten off except for this little old lady. She said, "Sonny, mind if I ask you a question?" He said, "Of course not, go ahead". The little old lady said, "Did we land or were we shot down?" "

The rich-and-famous don't always succeed in flaunting the rules, as the world-boxing champion learned on one flight. While the aircraft was being pushed back, the flight attendant asked him to buckle his seatbelt. The champ replied, "Superman don't need no seatbelt!"

Without missing a beat, the flight attendant replied: "Superman don't need no airplane, either!"

The student in his primary trainer was flying a solo cross-country. He lost his way and before he finally ran out of fuel he decided to put it down on a road. He managed to coast his aircraft into a gas station and said to the attendant, "Fill 'er up!" The attendant just looked at the pilot.

"I bet you don't get too many airplanes asking for a refuel," said the pilot. The attendant replied: "True, most pilots use that airport over there."
